City Alliance Church

380 West Fourth Street
This Romanesque-style church was designed and built by Eber Culver on land donated by Peter Herdic around 1860. After being destroyed by floods, the original building was torn down in 1898. A new church was built in 1914. The mountain stone was quarried in this area. Note the Tiffany windows.

Trinity Episcopal Church

844 West Fourth Street
Built in 1875 by Culver and Thorn, the church was paid for by Peter Herdic, who donated both the land and the building to the parish. His father-in-law, Judge Maynard, presented the church with a set of Westminster chimes. The church is an example of English-Gothic architecture and contains stone quarried locally from Bald Eagle Mountain. A soup lunch will be available Sunday from 12 PM – 2 PM.

Covenant Central Presbyterian Church

807 West Fourth Street
Built in 1910, this Richardsonian/Romanesque-style structure is composed of marble and granite, quarried from the Avondale Quarry near Philadelphia. The roof is terracotta tile and copper with thick window lintels. There are large semi-circular arched entries, three doors with stained glass, and many arched, stained-glass windows. The church has an eight-sided dome in the sanctuary that includes a cross on top made of solid oak with hammered copper overlay.

First United Methodist Church

604 Market Street
Located next to Lyscoming College, "First Church" was built in the depression-era and finished in 1924. Originally called the First United Evangelical Church, it was not until the late 1960's that the name changed to First United Methodist Church. Planning and construction began in 1920, just prior to the market crash of 1921. During the economic decline, the congregation met to discuss if they would forego proceeding with the construction to save their finances. Unanimously, they decided to continue construction in faith that their work was important enough to justify the risk. Sparing no expense, the beautiful church is built of North Carolina Mt Airy granite, decorated with a marble fountain, ionic columns, and elegant stained-glass windows that were designed, furnished, and installed by the C. Day Rudy Company of Harrisburg, PA. Choir/Organ concert at 3:30 PM.

St. Joseph the Worker Church

702 West Fourth Street
Built in 1886 by Amos Wagner on land donated by Peter Herdic, this Romanesque-style church was built to serve the Irish community. The stone came from the nearby town of Ralston. The church seats 600 people and features an abundance of marble and gold décor. Saturday lunch, beverages, and crafts 9 AM – 3 PM in the Parish Center.

Christ Community Worship Center

436 West Fourth Street
Originally Church of the Covenant and more recently St. Paul's Lutheran Church, this limestone structure has a center spire, bell tower, and steeply pitched roof with stone finials. The windows are pointed and arched. It has the largest expanse of Tiffany-stained glass in North Central Pennsylvania. Note the arched entryway with decorative insets.

Christ Episcopal Church

426 Mulberry Street
Christ Episcopal Church is the city's oldest Episcopal church. It was founded in 1841 as the First Episcopal Church of Williamsport and was located on the present site of the New Covenant Church. In 1869, the now standing Christ Church was built and held its first service on Christmas day of that same year. This Norman Gothic structure is appointed with several genuine Tiffany-stained glass windows, encaustic tile work, and many fine examples of brass and woodwork. It is also noted historically for the tenure of the eleventh Rector The Rev. Dr. John Henry Hopkins, Jr., composer of the beloved hymn "We Three Kings." A soup lunch is available Sunday from 12 PM – 2 PM. Organ Concert performed by organist Chris Frantz at 1:30 PM.

American Rescue Workers Community Church

25 Ross Street
This handsome Gothic Style church was built in 1885 by St. John's Reformed Church. In 1977, it was purchased by The American Rescue Workers and retrofitted to serve as a homeless shelter for 15 men, a chapel, and administrative offices for their holistic hunger and homelessness prevention programs. After a devastating fire in 2007 that was a result of a malfunctioning wall-mounted heating unit, the sanctuary was completely restored back to its vaulted ceiling with plaster beams and several stained-glass windows. A non-working pipe organ was removed, and some beautiful woodwork was retained to create a contemporary functional platform area with room for a baby grand piano and additional instrumentation. The congregation is made up of ARW's homeless shelter residents, staff, and community members. Harp & flute concert at 2:30 PM and 4:30 PM.

ARTS OF THE ERA
MUSIC & THEATRE

Victorian Chirstmas' Evening of Music
7:30 PM • Lycoming College Music Hall

During 1852 in Williamsport Pennsylvania, a village with a population of less than four thousand people, there appeared a famous violinist known as Ole Bull. In anticipation of his performance, the largest audience ever assembled in the county gathered. The concert went down in history as one of the most memorable musical events ever witnessed here.

On Friday, November 18, 2022, for the first time in over 170 years, the character of Ole Bull will return to perform in Williamsport, certain to once again please a delighted audience.

For the evening of November 18th, as part of the Victorian Christmas representation of the first classical music concert in Williamsport, John Paul (JP) Tobin will assume the character of Norwegian classical musician Ole Bull. Tobin is sought after as Concertmaster, Principal Violinist and Principal 2nd Violin in our region's finest ensembles.

Following "Ole Bull," The Repasz Band will present Repasz Brass and Repasz Winds, their two smaller ensembles created for special occasions, performing a brief history of traditional carols.

Music may include: Angels from the Realms of Glory; Angels We Have Heard on High; Away in a Manger; Deck the Halls; God Rest Ye Merry, Gentlemen; Hark the Herald Angels Sing; Jingle Bells; Good King Wenceslas; It Came upon a Midnight Clear; Jolly Old St. Nick; Joy to the World; O Come All Ye Faithful; Up on the Housetop; O Little Town of Bethlehem; We Three Kings; I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day; Silent Night; We Wish You a Merry Christmas.

Admission and Parking are Free.

Co-Chairs: Cathy (Piccolo) Bower, Mary Calistri-Geise

The Swan

Owners & Co-Chairs: Richard and Maggie Carlson
Florist: Wegmans

Completed in 1937, the Ridall Mansion was built for Dr. Paul L. Ridall, a prominent Williamsport physician, and his wife Annabelle Louise. Walter O. Lewis was the architect with the firm of Gordon and Stafford designing the home in the international style. Many of the original architectural and design features of the home remain including: the brass front doors, brass stair rails on the circular staircase, brass fireplace and lighting fixtures, flooring, and woodwork.

810 Vallamont Drive
The Lundy/Peace House

Owners: Tristin and Alivia Peace
Co-Chairs: Valerie Lundy and Jill Confair
Florist: Lady Di's Floral & Garden Art

This Georgian-style home brings the Philadelphia suburbs to Vallamont. Built in 1938 by Lundy Lumber and Construction Company for Jack and Kathryn Lundy, the design was inspired by a home featured in the September 1938 issue of The American Home Magazine. The Lundy family brought the page to life, matching the architectural detail to perfection. Its stylistic exterior boasts original Pennsylvania fieldstone and white clapboard siding. Inside, many of the original design elements remain and bring a simple elegance to the living quarters. Since the Lundy family, the subsequent owners have maintained the 1938 style with interior design influences from the Georgian era. Most recently, the kitchen and bathrooms have been renovated by the current owners with traditional design in mind, incorporating classic features such as checkerboard marble flooring, wainscoting, and crown molding.

606 Cemetery Street
Pajama Factory Lofts

Owners: Mark and Suzanne Winkelman
Chair: Deb Decker

Decorations by Rust and Shine

Step back in history as you enter this 8-building brick complex. Initially built in 1883 for Lycoming Rubber Company which introduced Keds sneakers, these factory buildings have housed numerous other manufacturers including Weldon's Pajama Company, Lucille Footwear Company, and Cobbler's Store & Factory. From 1979-2007, it was renamed Raytowne. The current owners Mark and Suzanne Winkelman purchased the factory complex in 2007 and are establishing an exciting and diverse community of emerging artists, businesses, craftspeople, and entrepreneurs from the world at large. We will be featuring the Winkelman's loft apartment with its unique industrial, eclectic feel, two AirBnB studio lofts decorated by different artists, and an upper floor loft where Theo Pina has a furniture woodworking studio "Aura King Designs." Feel free to wander and take in the artistic work lining the hallways throughout the building.

The second-floor alcove has a ceiling painted by the late Marguerite Bierman whose work is on display in many public buildings, churches, and private homes in Williamsport. Current homeowners Fred and Darlene Kellers purchased the home in 2021 and continue to care for this wonderful piece of history!

This circa 1870 four-story French Second Empire was the home of John R.T. Ryan and Emeline Tinsman Ryan. Ryan was a very accomplished but somewhat forgotten local lumberman, entrepreneur, and philanthropist. This home is attached to the former home of Garrett and Margaret Tinsman via an existing second story enclosed walkway. It features Italian marble fireplaces, plaster ceiling medallions, Victorian arches, and a three-story stadium shaped stair tower. This structure has taken seven years to preserve, restore and repurpose as a brewery and restaurant.

HISTORIC BUILDINGS & SITES

454 Pine Street
The City Hall Grand Hotel

Owners: Tim and Sandra Butters
Chair: Sandra Butters and Connie Phillips

Decorations by Sandra Butters

Built in 1893, this magnificent former city hall has been renovated into a boutique hotel so that the building's incomparable architecture, as well as Williamsport's history, can be shared with both business and leisure travelers alike. Eber Culver designed the five-story building of yellow brick trimmed in stone with molded brick ornamentation and terra cotta columns. It features two towers: a large rectangular tower and a smaller octagonal tower. The building was added to the National Register of Historic Places on November 7, 1976. Now boasting thirty guest rooms and a plethora of restored photographs, the hotel combines Culver's eclectic Late Victorian / Romanesque Revival-style with the industrial style of Joshua Butters. Tours of The Newsroom Grill & Spirits and the Blind Tiger Lounge on the lower level may also be available.

815 West Fourth Street
The YWCA

The cornerstone for this majestic building was laid in 1928 after a dedicated team of women raised $450,000 for construction in a mere five days. The centerpiece of this 70,000 sq. ft. Georgian-style building is the breath-taking rotunda. Griffins, gold-leaf and vibrant colors highlight this work of art commissioned and created by Marguerite Bierman. Notice the marble thresholds, hand-carved wooden details and the crystal chandeliers adorning the décor. For more than 90 years, women's lives have been transformed within these extravagant halls. Artisan Holiday Market and Duboistown Garden club (Saturday 9 AM - 4 PM & Sunday 11 AM - 4 PM).

19 East Fourth Street
James V. Brown Library

9:00 AM - 2:00 PM

The James V. Brown Library was a gift to the city of Williamsport from James VanDuzee Brown, a prominent citizen who made his fortune in lumber and grain mills and was instrumental in the founding of the Williamsport Municipal Water Authority. The library was designed by Edgar V. Seeler and opened to the public on June 18, 1907. The magnificent Moltz Rotunda Reading Room is of the original structure and contains the stained-glass dome skylight and a wrought-iron gazebo. The library will have Victorian-themed books on display, along with a performance by a small ensemble of the Repasz Band at 12 p.m. Light refreshments will be available.

Public restrooms and phone charging stations are available.

220 West Fourth Street
The Community Arts Center

9:00 AM - 12:00 PM

The Community Arts Center was born in 1928 as the Capitol Theatre, one of the finest movie palaces in the Comerford Amusement Company chain. The depression, a flood, and years of wear left the grand dame tarnished and ripe for the wrecking ball when in 1989, the Pennsylvania College of Technology, the City of Williamsport, and the Williamsport-Lycoming Foundation (now FCFP) agreed to buy and restore this downtown jewel. Fully renovated and historically restored, the Capitol reopened in May of 1993 and has provided a cultural heart for this community ever since. Many legendary performers have graced the CAC stage. Come take a tour, marvel at the architecture and decorations and join us for hot chocolate and cookies in the Capitol Lounge.

858 West Fourth Street
The Thomas T. Taber Museum
Lycoming County Historical Society

Visitors to the Lycoming County Historical Society will think they have entered a 19th century Paris salon when they visit the museum this year. An art show, The Best of B.E.A.L., will greet the visitor with the accomplished works of some of the finest artists of the region, members of the Bald Eagle Art League. Guests may also stroll through the fine arts gallery which features works by 19th century still life painter Severin Roosen, magazine illustrator Frances Tipton Hunter, and John Sloan, a member of the Ashcan School of American Art. Visitors will be swept back in time by viewing the re-created frontier room, the Greek Revival Parlor, and the Ralston General Store. Also, they may explore the dynamic history of the region's American Indian culture, the military heritage of the county and the industry of house and home. And what visit to the LCHS would be complete without viewing the LaRue Shemp Toy Train Collection!
